6. Consultants

Consulting services refer to the appointment by the organisation of a professional person(s) to provide technical and specialist services or to assist with the design and implementation of projects/programs for the achievement of a specific organisational objective. It is not necessary to maintain these skills in-house since they are required on a once-off or temporary basis.

7. Lease payments

Renting of building, copiers and other assets.

8. Advertising and marketing

Included within this item is the media monitoring contract, advertising costs as well as social media advertising costs.

9. Audit costs

In line with Section 188 of the Constitution of South Africa Section 188, The Auditor-General performs the external audit function.

10. Bank charges

Charges on commercial bank account (ABSA).

11. Bad debt

A debt relating to statutory receivables in respect of the former Board of Trustees of Genesis Medical Scheme was raised in the 2013/2014 financial year. After the court awarded in favour of CMS, the former Board of Trustees of Genesis Medical Scheme were ordered to pay CMS legal costs of R291 000. Several unsuccessful attempts were made by the CMS legal unit to recover the debt. After it was apparent recoverability was not feasible, management decided to raise a doubtful debt provision.

12. Board costs

All payments related to the functions of the board. This includes remuneration of Council and sub-committees of Council

13. Legal fees

Cost incurred for services rendered by attorneys and advocates.

14. Non-life insurance

Non-life insurance claims represent the claim due under contracts in respect of non-life insurance, that is, the amount which insurance enterprises are obliged to pay in settlement of injuries or damages suffered by persons or goods (including fixed assets).

15. Other unclassified expenditure

All expenditure items that could not be classified in any mentioned category.

16. Printing and publication
